

NRS KAZE (AND SEPARATE)

OVERVIEW

Kaze, an ergonomic genius.

The new generation of Takara Shampoo units.

Ergonomically designed for optimum comfort, the Kaze Shampoo unit has a number of ingenious features and functions that take shampooing comfort to a new level.

The lumbar support automatically adjusts to suit the individual customer's shape and size. The basin's unique gel-filled neck cushion cleverly snaps onto the bowl reducing pressure on the customer's neck and adding to the overall relaxed feeling.

Thermostatically controlled, the shampoo unit ensures consistent water temperature and an enjoyable shampoo experience.
